WASHINGTON.

Interesting Testimony in the Spofford-Kellogg Case.

KELLOGG-SPOFFORD.

Washington, June 9.—The committee on privileges and elections to-day resumed investigation of the Kellogg-Spofford case, and recalled Thomas Murray, colored.

By Mr. Merrick—Question: On Saturday you stated you had not been promised money, but you told the Kellogg you could make $2,000. I forgot to ask you how you were going to make the money?

A. By coming here to tell the truth and make a reputation with my people. It would be worth $2,000 to have good people of my community with me.

Delany was recalled and questioned about the signature to his affidavit, and the committee compared the signature to the affidavit to the name written on the separate piece of paper Saturday, but conclusions differed.

Mr. Merrick then offered in evidence Delany's affidavit to abide the disposition of the other evidence.

The sergeant-at-arms said eight witnesses on each side had been subpoenaed.

The chairman suggested that the examination be limited to that number as a committee to New Orleans to examine witnesses was not present in the hall.

James Seavey, a member of the Pack and legislature in 1877, and present in the joint convention that elected Kellogg, was examined.

Merrick exhibited the affidavit of witness, who said he wrote it and it bore his signature. The affidavit was read, stating that witness was not present in the legislature in January, 1877, when Kellogg was elected for the long term, but voted for him the next day.

Merrick—Is that paper true?

A. It is not true. The very parties who induced me to make the affidavit knew it to be false.

Merrick—Insist on knowing their names.

Witness—I won't tell all their names.

Merrick—The names of Canavan, Dronett, Murray and Elder. Witness wrote the affidavit himself, but those men told him "was" "was" in it and he could have everything he wanted.

A motion to suspend rules and adopt the resolution for an investigation in reference to the case of public buildings was defeated—yeas 115, nays 82—not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative.

Mr. Atkins reported back the substitute for the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which was passed under suspension of the rules.

CONGRSSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, June 9.—Mr. Colver's resolution to discharge the finance committee from further consideration of the Warner silver bill, and to declare the bill void, was postponed till to-morrow on motion of Mr. Voorhees.

A motion by Mr. Barnside for an executive session was rejected—19 to 21.

On motion of Mr. Harris the McDonald bill authorizing the employment of military and land and naval forces of the United States in certain cases, was taken up, and Mr. Harris made a speech in support of the bill.

While Mr. Harris concluded the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The resolution offered by Actin was referred, directing the committee on Pacific Railroad to inquire whether the Union Pacific Railroad Co. has not violated its charter in making investments contrary to the provisions thereof, and whether the contracts entered into about April 23d between the Central Pacific and Kansas Pacific Companies are not in violation of their charters.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

Exciting Scenes in a Philadelphia Court Room.

TO BE HANGED.

Philadelphia, June 9.—Edward Parry was sentenced to death to-day at noon for the murder of his daughter Susan Irwin. As the prisoner was leaving the dock he fell fainting to the floor and a phial dropped from his hand. It was then found that he had taken a dose of strychnine. He is still alive.

New York, June 9.—Mrs. Smith and Cove Bennett, convicted of killing police officer Smith, of Jersey City, have been sentenced to be hanged July 26th.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

New York, June 9.—Gustave Johnson, of Boonsbig parish, Sweden, has been arrested, charged with the murder of Laro Anderson, post carrier between Watforda and Keinewood.

BLEW UP.

Rockland, Me., June 9.—The wheel mill of the Warren Powder Works blew up to-day.

BLOODY TIMES.

A Mutiny of Mexican Troops Who Cross the River.

A Number of the Revolters Killed.

Galveston, June 9.—A News Eagle Pass special says early yesterday morning a company of Mexican infantry at Pietras Negras mutinied and fought their way through the guard at the gate. About fifteen crossed to this side under a heavy fire from loyal troops, who continued firing after the deserters landed, many balls striking the houses in the place. The fugitives surrendered their arms to citizens to be returned to Mexico. A number of mutineers were killed on the Mexican side.

The cause of the desertion is that the troops have been six months without pay and nothing to eat.

Yesterday evening the Mexican troops marched outside of the city with two captured mutineers whom they were going to shoot, but a strong protest from the citizens caused the execution to be abandoned.

J. D. Cooke arrived in the city again this morning, and will leave this evening to return again in about a week. He and the city engineer are to-day engaged in going about the city taking levels, etc. The water works trustees are engaged in pumping out wells in Bloomingdale for the purpose of sinking them to a greater depth to ascertain the quality of the gravel beds.

WASHINGTON.

Interesting Testimony in the Spofford-Kellogg Case.

KELLOGG-SPOFFORD.
Washington, June 8.—The committee on privileges and elections to-day resumed investigation of the Kellogg-Spofford case, and recalled Thomas Murray, colored. By Mr. Merrick.—Question. On Saturday you stated you had not been promised money, but you told De Lacy you could make $2,500. I forgot to ask you how you were going to make the money?—Answer. By coming here to tell the truth and make a reputation with my people. It would be worth $2,500 to have good people of my community with me.

De Lacy was recalled and questioned about the signature to his affidavit, and the committee compared the signature to the affidavit to the name written on the separate piece of paper Saturday, but conclusions differed.

Mr. Merrick then offered in evidence De Lacy's affidavit to abide the disposition of the other affidavits.

The sergeant-at-arms said eight witnesses on each side had been subpoenaed.

The chairman suggested that the examination be limited to that number as it might be considered proper to send a committee to New Orleans to examine witnesses in order to save expense.

Julius Seignies, a member of the Pack and legislature in 1877, and present in the joint convention that elected Kellogg, was examined.

Merrick exhibited the affidavit of witness, who said he wrote and bore his signature. The affidavit was read, stating that witness was not present in the legislature in January, 1877, when Kellogg was elected for the long term, but voted for him the next day.

Merrick—Is that paper true?—Answer. It is not true. The very parties who induced me to make the affidavit knew it to be a lie.

Merrick—I insist on knowing their names.

Witness—I won't tell all their names. After a deal of badgering, witness mentioned the names of Cavanaugh, Dronett, Murray and Elder. Witness wrote the affidavit himself, but these men told him there was "sugar" in it and he could have everything he wanted.

A motion to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution for an investigation in regard to the construction of public buildings was adopted—yeas 115, nays 82—not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative.

Mr. Atkins reported back the substitute for the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which was passed under suspension of the rules.

BLOODY TIMES.
A Mutiny of Mexican Troops Who Cross the River.

A Number of the Revolted Killed.
Galveston, June 9.—A News Eagle Pass special says early yesterday morning a company of Mexican infantry at Pietras Negras mutinied and fought their way through the guard at the gate. About fifteen crossed to this side under a heavy fire from loyal troops, who continued firing after the deserters landed, many balls striking the houses in the place. The fugitives surrendered their arms to citizens to be returned to Mexico. A number of mutineers were killed on the Mexican side.

The cause of the desertion is that the troops have been six months without pay and nothing to eat.

Yesterday evening the Mexican troops marched outside of the city with two captured mutineers whom they were going to shoot, but a strong protest from the citizens caused the execution to be abandoned.

J. D. Cooke arrived in the city again this morning, and will leave this evening to return again in about a week. He and the city engineer are to-day engaged in going about the city taking levels, etc. The water works trustees are engaged in pumping out wells in Bloomington for the purpose of sinking them to a greater depth to ascertain the quality of the gravel beds.

THE GENTLE DAMES.
The Frail Ones Who Called Upon His Honor this Morning.

Any one, to have seen our big, good looking deputy marshal, with "grand and stately tread," march away from the Court street palace with one of our fair damsels in charge, would have said "Ben's made a mash. This, however, was not the case. Ben was escorting the fair but frail, the great and only Orrville Radcliff, to city hall to interview the mayor. Orrville was charged with being an inmate of a house of ill fame, the same being the house of Nell Maynes, on Maumee avenue. Orrville was not in the least alarmed at her situation, and plead not guilty as easy as a veteran. She was working there, she was, and she guessed the mayor had made a mistake this time sure. She wasn't the cat that was wanted, oh no!

The mayor ventured to go $5 and costs on her anyway, and the fair Orrville languishes.

Nelson F. Mayne for keeping a house of prostitution, also thought there must be some mistake about the matter. That's precisely what the mayor thought, and it took just $17 in hard cash to rectify the mistake.

For resisting and obstructing an officer in the performance of his duty, Nelson was requested to donate $12 into the city treasury.

Nelson wanted to move out of town or do any other agreeable thing, but the Mayor said cash, cash, and cash had to come.

"Catharine McDonald what is your plea to the charge of willfully striking and assaulting Mrs. Shaughnessy as charged in this affidavit. Guilty or not guilty," warbled City Attorney Colerick in his sweetest tone.

"Oh my, oh dear! th' like of her. I put my hand against her face, I did; but for to strike, oh my! never. As I was acoomin' out my house down the street, the name I don't remember, I ain't so smart, I met the same, this Mrs. Shaughnessy." The reporter here was about eight hundred words in arrears and had to give it up. The words poured out in a living stream like a steam phonograph running away.

As soon as the mayor and marshal recovered their equilibrium from the effects of the first shock, Mrs. McDonald was choked off. Mrs. Shaughnessy made her statement, while Mrs. McDonald and her friends were almost frenzied because they couldn't speak. As soon as the mayor got a chance to speak, he fined her $1 and costs and rushed from the scene. Marshal Diehl had to be lifted out of the mess with a derrick and one-half the lobby had to be taken home in ambulances.

A WORD IN EARNEST

—BY—

Dr. Von

MOSCHZISKER.

Success in any business or profession is not only gratifying to the individual who succeeds, but to all those with whom he may have dealings; especially so in that of a MEDICAL PRACTITIONER, who, in order to obtain such, must not only have SUCCESS, but continue DAILY TO DO SO, giving OCULAR demonstrations of his SKILL and JUDGMENT. It is true that a physician may sometimes obtain a transient notoriety by trivial operations (judiciously reported), or by the cure of some particular case, supposed to be incurable; but this is not what can be called an ESTABLISHED REPUTATION. There are, considering the number who practice medicine, very few REALLY GREAT MEN, still fewer in the body claiming to be SPECIALISTS. It is PROVERBIAL that in no PROFESSION is there MORE ILL FEELING or JEALOUSY, than in that of MEDICINE, and this is very common in what is called the "general PRACTITIONERS" against any one with any SPECIAL PRETENSIONS, I could fill pages with amusing instances of the absolute IGNORANCE OF RESPECTABLE REGULAR PHYSICIANS in the treatment of SPECIAL DISEASES, SUCH AS ARE TREATED BY ME, that have come under my PERSONAL NOTICE in several places, but this is not my tale, as the illustrious JOAQUIN MILLER might remark in the premises. I have no desire to censure or to make myself the biographer of the BLUNDERS of those who may be called my OPONENTS. Having enjoyed for many years the friendship of MOST DISTINGUISHED MEMBERS OF THE PROFESSION, I can look with leniency now on the detractors of the LESSER LIGHTS. I enjoy the SUCCESSFUL PRACTICE of my PROFESSION, and find it made still more interesting by the COURSE I AT PRESENT PURSUE. Opposition to me on the part of those who neither UNDERSTAND my MOTIVES or my METHODS, will of course not at all affect that course, which was duly considered before it was adopted. I am often amused by hearing that Dr. A. or B. had remarked this or that about me; men frequently, evidently not my PEERS, even in GENERAL, not to speak of MEDICAL or SPECIAL EDUCATION, a fact which was probably known to no one better than themselves. If my CRITICS, though I do not expect them to be conversant with general literature, will look upon the shelves of the New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore libraries, they will find some exhaustive works of mine on GERMAN and SLAVONIC literature that have entitled me to a name and seat among men of reputation and learning, in the old and new world. As to my PUBLISHED MEDICAL WORKS, I shall say nothing. They have received, like my PRACTICE, sufficient praise. I have never YET FAILED in my PROFESSIONAL EFFORTS, and the more my opposition, the greater was my SUCCESS. I am fully COMPETENT TO DEFY all who oppose me, and am perfectly able to do ALL I PROFESS. I have the RIGHT and TITLE to my profession from the most learned INSTITUTES OF EUROPE, and my years of EXPERIENCE give me full confidence to speak authoritatively. I do not often fail when I take a case under TREATMENT, and the patient CARRIES out all my INSTRUCTIONS, and is regular in his attendance at my office. All who desire my medical services and the full benefit of my personal attendance on them, I take this opportunity to notify that they must not delay, but call at once.

There is more genuine heartfelt satisfaction in seeing a man step on a banana peel and then suddenly strike out for the four corners of the earth than there is in getting a free ticket to a circus or attending a revival prayer meeting.

S. P. Sheerin, of Logansport, was admitted to the Cass County bar last week. Mr. Sheerin, as recorder of Cass County, made an excellent official record, and is sure to achieve success in the law. His numerous friends in this city heartily wish him prosperity in his chosen profession.

The man who loses his hat on a windy day, and can make seven ineffectual attempts to pick it up without fracturing every clause in the decalogue, and at the same time can wear a smile of sweet resignation, has more of the essence of religion and pure Christian fortitude in his carcass than the combined heroes of "Fox's Book of Martyrs."

A grand time was enjoyed at Mad Anthony Park yesterday, when the Arion and Sengerbund societies held their picnic. The grounds were well filled with happy looking people, men, women and children, from noon until after dark. Beer flowed in vast quantities, and other refreshments were served. There was no liquor on the ground, no intoxication, and the best of order prevailed. The Fort Wayne City Band played several beautiful selections in fine style, and the singing societies furnished some excellent vocal music. A shooting gallery was in full blast, and there were other attractions for pleasure seekers. Altogether the picnic was a grand success.

The Myers marriage last Friday night was a gorgeous affair, over 200,000 people being present. The presents were costly and numerous, among which might be mentioned a diamond studded tea service with automatic stops and Westinghouse air brake, presented by Queen Victoria; a double geared side action piano stool warranted to play a piano in seven different languages, donated by the chief of the Zulus; a pair of star-spangled, cast-iron napkins, by King Kalakaua; a herd of wild buffaloes, 400 pounds of scrap iron, a barrel of crackers and hair pins, two buckets of sand, Patent Office reports for 1848, a quart can of horse-radish, and a thousand and one other useful and varied articles ornamented the center-table. After the fatal words were pronounced the happy groom slugged the minister on the jaw with a slung-shot, and the delighted pair went on their wedding tour, followed by their many friends and a shower of brickbats and eggs. All the above would have occurred only there was no wedding.

YATES' FRAUDS.

How They Roped in the Unsuspecting.

And Fleeced Them Out of Many Hard Earned Dollars.

We subjoin a well written article upon the conscientious humanitarian (?) frauds whose advertisements strike the eye in almost every newspaper in the land; conspicuous among which is that of the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House New York. This article is by an intelligent young druggist of this city, and one who has seen the prescriptions whereof he speaks.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:

The comparative large profit in patent medicines, has brought an immense variety of "all cures" and specifics into the market, while you cannot peruse the columns of any newspaper without being attracted on every page by all imaginable kinds of advertisements of patent medicines.

Probably every reader of any paper in the country has, during the last year or two, noticed in particular certain advertisements, to which their attention was more than unusually called, from the peculiarity of the inducements offered.

The modus operandi of these advertisers is about the same. Generally some returned missionary or shipwrecked Robinson Crusoe, who accidentally discovered in some far-off land a marvelous compound, a never failing cure of consumption, catarrh or any chronic disease, offers the formula gratuitously to all sufferers. His sole object is to benefit humanity and to have all sufferers reap the blessings of these valuable drugs, which God has mercifully acquainted him with. He furnishes his victim with a formula or prescription which no druggist or physician can understand, the names of the composing drugs not to be found in any pharmacopoeia in the world; in fact, do not exist at all. They are simply arbitrary, manufactured for the purpose. But he encloses a very modest circular, offering to furnish the medicine himself for the small sum of $3, $4 or $5, as the case may be. Thus many a poor, ignorant sufferer is robbed of his money under the veil of charity, and supplied generally with a medicine which is either wholly inert or composed of some of the most powerful mineral and vegetable poisons known. In the former case, the disease has a so-called "soft snap" on the system, having no medicinal opposition; in the latter case, the consequences are oftentimes most horrible, leaving all the symptoms of a poisoned system behind. The advertisement to which this article particularly refers is signed by Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, N. Y., a very confidential address certainly. The Rev. Joseph T., according to his statement, was formerly pastor of a church in Jamaica, L. I.; then sailed for Brazil on the "Reindeer," where he discovered his wonderful "Corassia Compound." As references, he publishes letters from Dr. J. W. Watson, London; Dr. R. C. Thonet, Paris; and Dr. G. W. Greenfield of New York, lauding the medicine to the skies. A short time ago the New York Sun investigated this most charitable $3.50 reverend, proving him to be a myth, no such man ever having occupied a pulpit in Jamaica; the ship "Reindeer," on which he sailed for Brazil, never existed, and the names of his references were not to be found in the respective city directories. His office in Mark's Place, New York, is managed by two young nobbily dressed fellows, wearing fine diamonds and looking more like sporting men than doctors; so they put him down as a very dangerous fraud.

Another fraudulent benefactor from Rochester, N. Y., who furnished a "Halish Sative" compound, as a specific for consumption, etc., on the same plan, had quite a "class" in this city, judging from the number of his prescriptions brought into one of our prominent drug stores, and the number of disappointed patients heard from afterwards.

So long as we have any number of first-class educated physicians everywhere in this country, and medicines of established merit in every first-class pharmacy, we have no need of any of these Rev. Drs. (?) and "Halish Sative," "Corassia Compound," "Sands of Life," etc., men, and every person encouraging such fraudulent and dangerous snares like these deserves to be humbugged, and ought to receive no sympathy whatever. RELIGIOUS RESUME.

A Day of Unusual Interest in the Churches.

Church Callings and Pulpit Paragraphs.

The beautiful ritual of the Episcopal Church was never so impressively rendered in this city as it was yesterday morning at Trinity Church. The services were conducted by Bishop Talbot, Mr. Webb, of Evansville, and Mr. Tate, of this city, assisting. Prof. Wellenstein presided at the organ and the quartette choir, composed of Mrs. Wagner, Miss Withers, and Messrs. Taylor and Harkemper, furnished most excellent music. The solo "Nearer My God to Thee," sung by Miss Withers during the offertory, was incomparable.

Mr. Webb, who preached both in the morning and evening, is quite a young man, yet there are few who are his equal in the pulpit. In addition to his natural oratorical gifts he has great personal magnetism and a full rich voice. He is a most agreeable and attractive speaker and we promise for him that he will take a place among the prominent preachers of the country. May he often visit Fort Wayne.

The First Presbyterian Church was closed yesterday, as the pastor was preaching the dedicatory sermon for a new church at Washington, D. C.

Dr. Stone preached at Bloomington, Ind., yesterday.

Presiding Elder Marine yesterday dedicated a new M. E. Church at Hartford City, costing $7,000.

Bishop Dwenger yesterday confirmed a class of seventy-five boys and girls at St. Vincent de Paul's Church, Logansport.

Rev. Joseph Brammer preached a very able sermon at the Cathedral yesterday morning.

Yesterday was Trinity Sunday.

Next Thursday will be the feast of Corpus Christi, a holiday of obligation in the Roman Catholic Church. It was instituted by Pope Urban IV, in honor of the consecrated oost, and with a view of its adoration.

A temperance meeting was held at the Centenary church last evening.

At Plymouth Church, last evening, a floral concert was held for the benefit of the children. The exercises were very interesting and pleasant, and the church was handsomely decorated.

Yesterday was Children's Day at the M. E. Churches, and topics suitable for the occasion were selected by the pastors.

Large delegations will leave to-morrow for the Sunday School Congress at Rome City.

A large temperance meeting was held at Glenwood Chapel last evening. Speeches were made by Messrs. Kavanaugh, Spice and others.

ZION'S CLASSIS.

The Zion's classis of the Reformed Church are in session at St. John's Church.

There are eleven pastors and seven elders present as delegates to the conference. The conference to-day was mostly engaged in hearing complaints, one of which was a complaint by a member of Salem Church of the council for suspending him on insufficient charges. This case occupied a great deal of time and it was finally resolved to refer the complainant back to the council of Salem's congregation. A number of synodical actions and other business were referred to the general synod.

The conference adjourned to-day to meet at Emanuel's church, near Decatur, Adams county, on the first Thursday after Pentecost, 1880.

Deal Gently with the Stomach.

If it proves refractory, mild discipline is the thing to set it right. Not the nauseous draughts and boluses ever invented can do half as much to remedy its disorders as a few winged slugs—say three a day—of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will afford it speedy relief and eventually banish every dyspeptic and bilious symptom. Sick headache, nervousness, sallowness of the complexion, fur upon the tongue, vertigo and those many indescribable and disagreeable sensations caused by indigestion are too often perpetuated by injudicious dosing. An immediate abandonment of such random and ill-advised experiments should be the first step in the direction of a cure; the next step the use of this standard tonic alterative, which has received the highest medical sanction and won unprecedented popularity.

CURED OF DRINKING.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady, and he has remained a sober and steady man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading Railroad Official, Chicago, Ill.

BUSINESS.

The Board of Health Put On Its War Paint.

And Propose to Abate All Nuisances VI et Armis.

The Board of Health met on Saturday afternoon, all the members present; also by invitation, Mayor Zollinger, City Attorney Colerick, Street Commissioner O'Brien and Marshal Diehl.

The object of this special meeting was to determine the exact length and breadth of authority the Board had under the ordinances for the abatement of nuisances, the most expedient and expeditious manner of dealing with violations of the ordinance, &c.

The session was long and interesting, and all present were of the opinion that an early thorough cleaning up was imperatively demanded. The Board then went into executive session. Reports of grave nuisances and matters relating to the calaboose were submitted and ordered to be sent to the Council.

The board has decided to exercise the full powers conferred upon it by charter and ordinances by ordering the abatement of nuisances, and proceedings to abate them and to prosecute if the order is not obeyed within the time fixed by law.

Section xv, chapter 23 of the revised ordinances is as follows: In all cases where a nuisance shall be found in any building or upon any ground or other premises within the city limits or within the distance of two miles therefrom, twenty-four hours' notice shall be given by writing, signed by the marshal, street commissioner, chief of police, or any member of the board of health, to the owner or occupant of such building, or other premises, and in case of refusal or neglect to abate the same in accordance with such notice, the street commissioner shall remove or cause to be removed, and the expenses which may be incurred shall be reported to the council by the street commissioner, and the council shall assess such expenses against the lots or premises upon which the nuisance shall be found. If the assessment is not paid within twenty days, the amount will be collected in the usual way.

According to this ordinance those who do not obey such orders will have to pay all the costs and a fine not to exceed $100 besides.

The board will, to-morrow night, order the council to abate the nuisance known as the calaboose within fifteen days. The council is not used to being ordered, and may not take the command kindly, but the board will have the people at its back, and can afford to stand its ground.

Ras Chittenden will either take in the Sengferfest at Cincinnati or the Sunday School Congress at Rome City, he hasn't decided which.

Between the Sunday School Congress at Rome City, the Sengferfest at Cincinnati, and the races at St. Louis and Jackson, there will be a large exodus from this city during the present week.

Miss Mollie Drake, who has been spending the past three weeks at Grand Rapids as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Butterfield, will return to-morrow, and in company with Miss Hester McKinnie leave for Fairbault, Minn., sometime during the present week.

Rev. E. A. Russell, of White Pigeon, Mich., agent for the American Baptist Publishing Society, filled Dr. Stone's pulpit, both at the morning and evening services. Rev. R. is a forcible speaker and delivered two very effective discourses to large congregations.

The common council will meet at 8 p. m., instead of the usual hour, 2 o'clock, in order to get through business early, as several of the members propose taking the 10 p. m. train for Cincinnati to attend the Sengferfest. They are anxious to hear Hettler's solo.

One of the boys hired a buggy of Jack Reed yesterday morning, but as he had been out late he fell asleep before he had gone half a square. One of the stablemen got in and drove him back to the barn, where he woke up in about an hour, well satisfied that he had had a good long ride.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Frank Pond, with several ladies and their children, were enjoying themselves in the woods northwest of the city when Master Albert Pond suddenly disappeared, and the ladies, after a most thorough search, were unable to find him. Fearing that he had been drowned or carried away, Mrs. Pond returned to the city nearly paralyzed with terror. Sheriff Munson and Marshal Diehl went out to find the boy who had in the meantime been found by some people who had started to town with him.

WIFE MURDER.

Ira Williams, Formerly of This City, Kills His Wife.

The End of a Degraded Career.

A great many of our readers will remember Ira Williams, a photographer who lived in this city a number of years, and who enjoyed a most unenviable notoriety hereabouts. He had a very pretty wife, who was said to have been quite respectable when he married her, but whom he dragged down to his own low level, until she became fully as notorious as he. She was addicted to optimism-eating and had the reputation of being a lewd woman before she left Fort Wayne. Since then nothing has been heard of her until now, when news comes that her husband murdered her yesterday, at Youngstown, O.

It appears that on Decoration Day Mrs. Williams went to Youngstown and entered the notorious ranche kept by Lib Little. Williams followed her up, and, after considerable search, found her at the above-named place and induced her to go with him to a hotel. Yesterday he tried to get her to leave Youngstown and go with him to some other place, but she refused and a quarrel ensued, she striking him, and he choking her. He then pulled out a revolver and shot her. The ball entered her head on the right side and lodged in the base of the brain, causing a mortal wound. He escaped and at last accounts was still at large with the officers in hot pursuit. He has been traveling through Ohio for some time past with a photographer's car, stopping at the smaller towns and villages.

Williams was married here to his wife ten or twelve years ago. He hailed from Ohio and was rather dissipated. He ran a photograph gallery for a time over the Hamilton Bank, afterwards over Capt. Harper's store and subsequently on East Columbia street. He and his wife were at different times arrested on various charges, ranging from drunkenness and disorderly to grand larceny. She was once indicted for the theft of Kane Brower's watch, but was acquitted. It was believed that they were engaged in blackmailing operations, by means of which they gained a precarious existence. They were both prominent as witnesses in the Franks rape case.

That their career would end in a tragedy of some kind was generally predicted by those who knew them.

(Special to the Sentinel.)
Youngstown, O., June 9, 2 p. m.—Mrs. Williams is still alive. The bullet is still in her head, at the base of the brain, and cannot be taken out. The doctors disagree as to her final recovery. Williams is not yet captured. Both are fine looking, and have two children at their home at Alliance.

Divorce Matters.

Catherine Higgins has filed a petition asking for divorce and alimony from her husband John J. Higgins. She states that John has treated her cruelly, so far as to take hold of her and jam her up against the house and caress her in various other ways contrary to the code. He also scolded her and intimidated in so many words that she was a dumb fool. She says he also called her vile names in the presence of the neighbors, which is more than she can bear; she therefore prays the court to bust up the marriage ties and let her room once more.

The Worden-Worden divorce case is on trial in the circuit court. Mrs. Worden says Mr. W. has failed to provide for her, etc. Mr. Worden won't be bulldozed in any such a manner, and produces his little memorandum book and reads off to his esteemed spouse the items he provided for her customer. Mr. Worden says "yes." Mrs. Worden says "no." The court will split the difference.

The Board of Health Put On Its War Paint.

And Propose to Abate All Nuisances VI of Armis.

The Board of Health met on Saturday afternoon, all the members present; also by invitation, Mayor Zollinger, City Attorney Colerick, Street Commissioner O'Brien and Marshal Diehl.

The object of this special meeting was to determine the exact length and breadth of authority the Board had under the ordinances for the abatement of nuisances, the most expedient and expeditious manner of dealing with violations of the ordinance, &c.

The session was long and interesting, and all present were of the opinion that an early thorough cleaning up was imperatively demanded. The Board then went into executive session. Reports of grave nuisances and matters relating to the calaboose were submitted and ordered to be sent to the Council.

The board has decided to exercise the full powers conferred upon it by charter and ordinances by ordering the abatement of nuisances, and proceedings to abate them and to prosecute if the order is not obeyed within the time fixed by law.

Section xv, chapter 28 of the revised ordinances is as follows: In all cases where a nuisance shall be found in any building or upon any ground or other premises within the city limits or within the distance of two miles therefrom, twenty-four hours notice shall be given in writing, signed by the marshal, street commissioner, chief of police, or any member of the board of health, to the owner or occupant of such building or other premises, and in case of refusal or neglect to abate the same in accordance with such notice, the street commissioner shall remove, or cause to be removed, and the expenses which may be incurred shall be reported to the council by the street commissioner, and the council shall assess such expenses against the lot or premises upon which the nuisance shall be found. If the assessment is not paid within twenty days the amount will be collected in the usual way.

According to this ordinance those who do not obey such orders will have to pay all the costs and a fine not to exceed $100 besides.

The board will, to-morrow night, order the council to abate the nuisance known as the calaboose within fifteen days. The council is not used to being ordered, and may not take the command kindly, but the board will have the people at its back, and can afford to stand its ground.
